EMBATTLED AND FOLLOWED BY AN ARMY. THE YEAR is 4 KA, the 10th century. The leader of the Eastern Empire of Man is a powerful emperor, Oberon. His underling is Adamia Valtiel, a talented young commander in charge of the imperial cavalry, who entered Oberon's court by intent. Let me play as Oberon. What shall I do! - Fight the Empire Who Came to Destroy Us. In the Eastern Empire, the people were worshipping devils and unleashing fury against the power of God, with the intent to burn and perish this holy kingdom. Confronting the fury of the East, the God-bearing kingdom of men decided to unite, forming a unified force under the leadership of Oberon. Through all kinds of means, the West set its sights on the Eastern Empire. The Eastern Empire must be destroyed. - Become a Hero. Oberon's court had a number of veterans in its ranks. And then there is Adamia Valtiel, who entered their court by intent. She was an extremely talented knight, and her advanced skills came to the attention of the Emperor. However, Adamia was a liability in battle. She was inept at wielding power and was often prone to despair. A commoner and woman, she was revealed to be an heiress of the Lord of the Aldama, a renowned clan. Shocking revelation! The royal court was disturbed. They could not understand how a woman like her, who was a nobody, could be an heiress. However, the man who had hidden the truth regarding Adamia and kept her silent was a serving-maid of a certain household, which kept the secret until she herself rose to the heights of the royal court. I will fight for Adamia. I will fight as she had wished. I will become a hero! I will fight! I will become a hero! If I can become a hero... Let me play as Adamia! - The Promised Adventure of the Niaorians: The Order of the Cross. Was the journey towards an end? Adamia knew only that she had to lead the Empire's cavalry. In that manor, there was no army, and the journey was winding down. Knowing this, she sensed an unknown land called the Cemeteries of the Forgotten Heaven, and decided to head there. There was an old letter from an

Tue, 04 Jul 2012 17:04:31 +0000Visitors turn to web-based games for fun'n'sol Gamers rejoice, after announcing their preference for web-based games over traditional console or PC console options and with a new Australian distributor announced by Valve, video games are once again taking on a new shape that every trendsetter is trying to fit in to. Not that console alternatives were not available, but the challenge ahead wasn't to see what you could put inside a box, but to find a format that would work for everyone. Taming the Demon In a world of streamed videos and consoles that will also emulate web-based games, it might seem hard to believe that the concept of gaming online predates the 2000's. The concept of matching up like-minded individuals with similar interests is what got people dreaming of new games by the click of a mouse long before the Nintendo and Sony console wars, and we may yet see a new start of the concept even if the present landscape of gaming is full of experiences where the only difference between yourself and that neighbor in the bedroom is the views that you get on Twitter. 1. Make sure Uplay is the latest version (v1.2.2). 2. Install patch. 3. Play. Enjoy. The `NFE` game includes this new DLC pack: The CONSTRUCTION ARMY DLC! —more about this DLC— This pack is about building a town and city to start your own empire. Before you start building, you need to decide where to build your first city. There are 4 types of cities. Normal city. Greed city. Guard city. Convoy city. —areas of the city— There are 4 types of areas in a city: Commercial street. Guard street. Residential street. Residential house. So what you need to do is decide which area you want to build your city in. For example, do you want a commercial city, a military city, a city protected by a guild, a city run by merchants, or a city with a lot of living residences? During the game, you can check the status of the city by looking at the stats above the town map. Your world will evolve around your construction activities as you advance, and the area of the city becomes bigger and bigger. —upgrades — During the game, the city will have a set of upgrades that you can receive by gathering materials and completing missions. Industrial District upgrade. Commercial District upgrade. Protected District upgrade. Guild City upgrade. The upgrades will show up on the screen when you are at the shop and each upgrade will affect different parts of the city, such as the industrial district and the residential districts. In addition, certain buildings will become available as you progress. If a residential house becomes available, you can purchase the house by trading gold and you can upgrade the house to increase the level of the house. —information of your character— In addition to the character skill points, you can also collect information about your character. If you defeat monsters, you will get cards, and as you collect more cards, you will get information about your character. For example, you can see the skill points that you have and what level the
